

BIOGRAPHY

MAJ MELISSA STUBBLEFIELD

DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY AND VETERANS AFFAIRS

Maj Melissa Stubblefield is the first female Commandant of the New Jersey Youth Challenge Academy. She is a Veteran of the United States Marine Corps. Upon being honorably discharged, she began work as a Corrections Officer Supervisor for Clark County Sheriff's Office, in the state of Indiana. She received her BBA in Management and is currently working on her master's in organizational leadership.

Major Stubblefield is a certified life coach and entrepreneur. She specializes in transition life coaching. Her other life's passion is entrepreneurship. She believes that everyone should have the opportunity to pursue his or her life's passion through entrepreneurship. She also helps Military Veterans by empowering them with tools necessary to obtain benefits they are entitled after leaving the service.

Maj Stubblefield is the owner and principal consultant of Inspiring Purpose Consulting and Coaching LLC. She is currently on the Board of Directors for Who Am I Inc, and Co-Founder of It's Not About Us Outreach Inc., (a non-profit organization currently in its beginning stage) it will provide a constructive environment for "at-risk" youth through education, and art.

Maj Stubblefield is on the National Small Business Association's Leadership Council. She is a member of WMA (Women Marine Association), the American Legion, the New Jersey State Veterans Chamber of Commerce and a member of Kappa Epsilon Psi Military Sorority Inc.